CONSORTIUM OF GUJARATI SCHOOLS

Teaching Gujarati Grammar Effectively – Sunday 27th September 2026 - Kingbury

Feedback analysis from 10 out of 13 participants

	Excellent	Very Good	Neutral	Unsatisfactory	Poor
Quality of training:	8	2	0	0	0
Improve teaching quality	9	1	0	0	0

What aspects were good and Why?

Excellent as always, Clarity of teaching grammar, videos very informative. Opportunity to test spelling and grammar was most valuable; Very well structured, excellent content, covered in depth, well delivered. The example of questions asked with pictures were very good. Good presentation split well in 1-3, 4-6. Appropriate length of sessions; Great content, Power point and explanations for each slide very good; Structure was very good; Better clarity on Gujarati grammar to be taught, Use of tone in speaking, Transitive, Intransitive Verbs in Speaking and Writing, Opportunities for spelling and grammar assessments for participants; All topics were very interesting and will be used in lesson my planning; Group work assessment opportunity for Anuswar very helpful; All very good; Anuswar and Grammar Analysis; All of it was very good; Complex grammar structures clarified, Fruitful day, made group tasks challenging fun, Good timing, seamless flow.

What aspects were less satisfactory, useful? Why?

In some areas, the information was so deep that it was difficult to grasp but it was to know about.

List ¾ action points you will include into your own teaching

Nouns and Pronouns, Transitive and Intransitive Verbs, Singular and plural pronouns, spelling rules. Lesson planning according to different abilities in class, Giving children rule charts, sentence structure, gender endings; In Y 3,4,5 the theory behind sentence construction, use of pictures with questions, Lesson preparation for younger children; Sentence structure, Activity pictures, Action Songs; Making students practise speaking more, Use more props, toys, food, for better understanding, make games/tell stories while teaching; Playing games, asking questions using grammar, making more resources as part of lesson plan; Nouns, Pronouns and Gender; Will emphasise on speaking Gender and Tense correctly, Give more practice in talking and communication

What topics should we cover in any future training

More on Punctuation, Anuswar and Gujarati Parts of Speech. Lesson planning for lower years, How to teach Gujarati as a second language; How to incorporate these grammar rules in E Y teaching so that it ingrained; E Y lesson planning idea; Understanding mindset of GCSE students for preparing for the exam, Use of AI to enhance teaching; Building sentences in Gujarati; Year 5 to 8 Standard Topics; How AI and Chat GPT will help students.